

Imperialism and WWI – Objectives, terms and calendar

Objectives

The student will understand and explain

1. what changes in America forced the U.S. to look outward
2. the causes of the Spanish-American War
3. the causes of WWI
4. how the U.S. became involved in WWI
5. the affect of WWI on the American economy, civil liberties, and society in general
6. the nature of combat in WWI
7. the role the U.S. military played in the fighting in Europe
8. why Wilson's 14 points were not used and why the Treaty of Versailles was so harsh

Terms

Imperialism

Panic of 1893

Frederick Jackson Turner

closing the frontier

Alfred Mahan

Josiah Strong

“White Man’s Burden”

Social Darwinsim

USS Maine

Hawaii

du Lome Letter

yellow journalism

U-boat

Zimmerman Telegram

Lusitania

Russian Revolution

Allies

Central Powers

trench warfare

Franz Ferdinand

War Industries Board

propaganda

Espionage and Sedition Act

Schenk v. U.S.

Woodrow Wilson

Fourteen Points

reparations

League of Nations

war-guilt clause

Committee on Public Information

George Creel

American Protective League

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
1/2	1/3 1 st Semester Reflection Discuss Final Exams Go over exam Lecture: Roots of American Imperialism	1/4 Finish Lecture: Roots of American Imperialism Start Spanish-American War Homework Homework: The Spanish-American War. Due Monday.	1/5 SNOW DAY	1/6 Discuss the S/A War Why did the U.S. Invade Cuba? Homework: Causes of WWI – Articles/Graphic Organizer. Due tomorrow.
1/9 Causes of WWI Homework: Chapter 19, Section 2 Questions 1 and 3. Due tomorrow.	1/10 Why did the U.S. Enter WWI? Homework: Chapter 19, Sec. 3/” Great Influenza Reading” Complete Reading Guide – Due Thursday.	1/11 Combat during WWI	1/12 WWI and Civil Liberties – Schenk v. U.S. Homework: Ch. 19 Sec. 4 Questions 1, 2, and 3. Due tomorrow.	1/13 The 14 Points and the Treaty of Versailles
1/16 No School – MLK Day	1/17 Why did Congress Reject the Treaty of Versailles?	1/18 Exam – Imperialism and WWI	1/19	1/20