Dear Parents:

As part of our study of the World War Two, I am planning to show portions of the movies "Saving Private Ryan" and "Flags of our Fathers" during class the week of March 17. These movies each have an R rating due to violence and some profanity. The violence is in the form of several graphic battle scenes. I feel that the movies, however, will be a valuable addition to our study of the time period and give the students a realistic picture of what World War Two combat was like. While some of the scenes are intense, they are good depictions of the manner in which the World War Two was fought and of the realities of the war. The movie is available at most video stores if you would like to preview it before signing this form.

Please fill out the permission slip below. All students must have parental permission to watch the movie. An alternative assignment will be given for any student who will not be watching the movie. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at (720) 554-2376.

Sincerely,

Benwari Singh
U.S. History Teacher

PLEASE RETURN NO LATER THAN March 15, 2016.
